efforts on the part of trainmen to get a

the receivers say they can pay present

Lawyers have made it comparatively an easy matter to break a will which discriminates between heirs, but the winner of the suit generally has to pay for the victory. Mrs. Blanche Gilbertson French, late of New Albany, has just finished paying over $65,400 in attorney's fees, though the suit she brought to break the codicil to her father's will was settled out of court.

HAYES THOMAS, Principal.

THE MEANS WILL.

Celebrated Case Now On in the Federal Court, Louisville.

The famous case of B. I. Cowan and others, Trustees, against the Executors of the will of Thomas W. Means, deceased, is being argued before Judge Barr in the Federal Circuit Court, Louisville.

Thomas W. Means of Ashland died, leaving property worth nearly a million dollars.

Under his will he devised an equal share to each of his five children and provided that money advanced to them before his death should not be charged against them in the distribution.

The amount which he had advanced to his children, it may be mentioned, approximated $600,000.

William Means, one of the sons, was President of the Metropolitan Bank of Cincinnati.

This institution got into financial straits on February 8th, 1893, and the elder Means advanced to his son $100,000.

The bank, however, finally collapsed.
The chief question at issue in the suit is whether the money advanced to William Means should be charged against his distributable share of his father's estate.

The executors of the will take the position that it should, while the trustees whom Mr. Means appointed for his wife and children contend that under the terms of the will the advanced money is not to be taken into consideration.

Each side is represented by able counsel.

The attorneys for the plaintiffs are J.
J. Glidden of Cincinnati; General John Little of Xenia and Judge H. P. Whitaker of Covington.

The defense is in the hands of Lawrence Maxwell, Solicitor General of the United States; John Hager of Ashland and Judge Anderson of Ironton, O.

the intention of Superintendent Scott to give the buildings a coat of paint—something they have never had, although they have been standing about half a century.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as an occasion re-

The State Board of Equalization, which has been in session at Frankfort for the past six weeks, will complete its work about May 5th. The totals in regard to the state's property assessment cannot yet be obtained, but it is safe to predict that the total equalized value of property assessed for taxation this year will be somewhere between $20,000,000 and $40, 000,000 less this year than it was last.

The assessed values show a decrease of about $2,000,000, which decrease the board attributes to the general depreciation in the value of personal property.

Colonel T. J. Glenn of Carlisle has traded the old Walter homestead, con-net earnings $240,478.68, a decrease of only $19,273.23.

The Route From the Camp to the City Changed.

The Army to Disband on the Northwest Border of the Grounds.

Gen. Coxey Will Not Be Allowed to Speak From the Capitol Steps, Nor in the Grounds if He Attempts to Do So. He Will Be Arrested.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Coxey's army will enter Washington Tuesday. The route from the camp to the city has been changed. The parade, planned by the Fourteenth street road to Mt. Pleasant, a suburb of the city, thence via Fourteenth street proper to Pennsylvania avenue to the capital grounds. At this point the body will turn into First street, up B to Delaware avenue N. W., which will place them on the northwest border of the grounds. Here it is proposed to disband and enter as individuals unless permission is subsequently granted them to go in as a body.

The wooden gates, swinging from hastily improvised supports, such as are always used on inauguration days and upon occasions when great crowds are expected, have been placed at the north and south entrances of the capitol grounds.

Col. Redstone, Coxey's local representative, requested Representative Davis (rep. Kas.) Monday to offer a resolution requesting that Coxey be permitted to make an address from the capitol grounds, and that he be allowed to deliver an address from the capitol grounds, and that he be allowed to deliver an address from the capitol grounds, and that he be allowed to deliver an address from the capitol grounds.

The officials at the capitol have been notified that Coxey proposed to give a speech from the east front of the building Tuesday, and he has been told that no speech-making will be allowed by himself or his followers, either in or out of the capitol building or within the grounds, and that if he attempts to speak he will be arrested. It is believed that Coxey will endeavor to deliver an address from the capitol grounds, and that he will be arrested.

Sensational Incident in Court.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 1.—There was a dramatic scene at the trial of John E. Harris, this morning. C. K. Simmonds had just identified White, when the latter, who had not been handcuffed, raised up in his chair, his eyes blazing, with a murderous grin, grabbed the lawyer from the table at his elbow and hurled it with fearful force at the witness. It tore through the window curtain, which went whizzing up to the ceiling. The jury fled in terror, and the glass, and in an instant the whole room was in an uproar.

Armstrong Indicted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—The hearing of Alvin Armstrong, in contempt of court, was held in District Judge Baker, Monday, and he was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment. Armstrong is the juror in the bank case who was convicted. Standard attempted to sell the defense for $5,000. The testimony for the prosecution detailed with great minuteness the efforts of Armstrong in the hanging of the jury. After offering character testimony, the defendant threw himself upon the mercy of the court.

A Million Dollar Decision.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 1.—The decision of the interior department regarding an important corner in Guthrie, O. C. N. Barnes, ex-registrar of the land office, can not hold title, because he was a government official. This bars all federal officers from acquiring titles to lots or land, and gives to actual settlers over $1,000,000 worth of property in the leading towns of Oklahoma claimed by government officials.

The Earthquakes in Greece.

ATHENS, May 1.—The official reports from the earthquake-stricken districts show that the whole coast line from the ancient port of Larissa to Thermopylae has been leveled. The minister of the interior, has received advice that in the Lokris district alone 300 persons were killed. Two hundred and thirty-two bodies have already been recovered. About 800 were injured.

Trouble at Centralia, Ill.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 1.—The men in all the mines here have decided to come out Tuesday. The strike is looked for. The fruit growers of this section also fear there will not be sufficient fuel to run the fruit trains. Eighteen Inches of Snow.

RED CLIFF, Cal., May 1.—Snow was 18 inches deep here on the level Tuesday night, and it was still falling fast. It is feared the rain will be too much for the canyon will be washed away if this snow melts rapidly.

Columbus Ministers Protest Against the Meeting Being Paraded.

COLUMBUS, O., May 1.—A protest signed by nearly every pastor in this city, including Rev. Washington Olden, Francis E. Marston, James P. O'Donnell and fifty others, was presented to the board of managers Tuesday. The protest cites the facts in the case as evidence of the enormity of his crime, and says:

"The crime which he committed was not a case of ordinary manslaughter, but was atrocious and he should be put on a public holiday, when the street was crowded with spectators, he shot repeatedly into a promiscuously crowded street, killing at least one man, wounding several others, as well as killing his opponent."

The ministers disclaim any personal feeling or prejudice, but protest against the parade because of the effect "of the most dangerous precedent upon the reverence of the public for law and justice."

MAY BE MORE LYNCHINGS.

The Four Murderers Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life. The sentence of the district court was held Monday to try the seventeen negroes who have been arrested in connection with the lynching of the race war in Madison, which resulted in the lynching of seven negroes and the killing of another for the murder of Manager Boyce, of Daney plantation.

At the earnest solicitation of the citizens the district attorney decided to proceed against only four of them, and the most direct and simple in the assassination, and the others were released with a warning to keep very quiet. Informations were filed against Giles Augustus, Rufus Hawkins, Mack Smith and Charles Claxton. They were immediately arraigned, waived all formalities and pleaded guilty to manslaughter. The court sentenced them to ten years' hard labor in the penitentiary.

DRUMMERS HAPPY.

United States Supreme Court Decision That They Need Not Secure City License.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—"No state can levy a tax on interstate commerce in any form," was the gist of a decision announced by Justice Brewer in the supreme court yesterday. W. Brennan was agent for a Chicago firm soliciting in Pittsburg, Pa., for pictures and picture frames. An ordinance of that city required such solicitors to pay a license. For failing to do this Brennan was fined $25 in the city court, and on appeal the supreme court, Justice Brewer stated that the judgment of the city court was reversed. In concluding Justice Brewer reaffirmed the rule laid down in Flick v. Shelby county (145 U. S. 1).

MARSHFIELD, O., May 1.—Caroline Coxey did not secure her mother's consent on leaving for Washington Tuesday night to join the commonwealth army as the "angel" of peace. She fled away. Mrs. Coxey refused to allow the girl to leave with the general's son, Jesse, and while the latter was bidding his mother good-bye he packed her clothing and the girl's. The brother and sister met at the depot and took a train for Washington. Mrs. Coxey, who is the general's divorced wife, will sue for legal means to regain possession of her daughter.

His condition seemed to improve after the shock, and his friends anxiously felt up to Monday very much encouraged, but the physicians held out no hope that he would ever perfectly recover. His condition was aggravated by a fall from a case, and Monday morning all hope was given up. His end was painless.

POMEROY, O., May 1.—The wife of Asa Skinner, a wealthy farmer, up to Monday morning was in the county, committed suicide Monday morning by drowning herself in Leading creek. Voorhees and Turpie Making Sensational Speeches.

A Statement Made by Senator Aldrich Causes the Trouble.

Senator Voorhees Says Whatever May Be Fought in the Air the Income Tax Will Stay—The Tariff Bill—The Sugar Schedule.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In the senate Monday, early in session, Mr. Wolcott (Ill.) started the bill for the discussion on the tariff bill which marked the sessions of Friday and Saturday last.

"Even under the tariff bill was reported," he said, "some of us on this side of the chamber have availed ourselves of every opportunity given us to vote in favor of taking up the tariff bill. This being so, I rise to ask the senator from Tennessee (Mr. Harris), if it is not fair to say that he should inform us whether or not he will support this bill which he has called upon to vote."

Mr. Harris—I stated to the senate on Saturday, and I am ready to state it now, and at all times, that I am ready to compromise conflicting opinions and am willing to make modifications where they are substantial. Exactly what those amendments are to be I am not prepared to tell the senate.

Mr. Aldrich proposed the interview with Secretary Carlisle, as published in Monday morning's papers, and was about to read and comment upon it, when the high court of the West (vest. dom. Mo.) The vice-president, however, decided against the point of order, stating that he had no authority under the rules to prevent the reading of the interview.

Mr. Aldrich referred to Mr. Voorhees' statement last Saturday that he (Mr. Aldrich) had uttered an untrue statement that some 300 amendments had been agreed to between the secretary of the treasury and some democratic managers connected with the tariff.

Mr. Voorhees disclaimed any intention of personal offense. He had merely wanted to convey to the senate and to the people the fact that the tariff was being worked on false information as he is now, and if, after that, he made the assertion again he would do it on his own responsibility.

Mr. Aldrich said he was informed and believed that at this very moment in the neighborhood of three hundred amendments have been practically agreed to between the high court of the West and the tariff parties, which will change completely the character of the pending measure.

Mr. Voorhees quoted from the Keokuk of a passage in Mr. Harris' speech of last Saturday, comprising the sentence, "This bill has never been considered by the committee on Finance," and stated that he had been reported to the full committee and discussed, and that amendments had been offered by Sherman and Morrill, and some of them agreed to. He added that his respect for the character of the senator from Iowa prevented him from characterizing him as the circumstances would warrant.

Mr. Sherman insisted that his statement was substantially true, and that he would not attempt to change what had been agreed upon in advance of the majority of the committee was so utterly useless that the minority should have declined to present any amendments at all.

Mr. Voorhees read the journal of the finance committee to prove the correctness of his assertion in contradiction to Mr. Sherman's statement, and added, with strong emphasis:

"Whatever may be floating in the air, the income tax will stay in this country. I am not prepared to trust to trusts and to great protected industries that I shall make. I have gone to the limit. I see what is in the newspapers, and I have heard of amendments of a certain character—for example, to the administrative features of the measure. Mr. OLIVET.
A. R. Howard of Mason thinks of making a purchase of tobacco in this county with this place as headquarters.

The J. J. Landrum G. A. R.'s of this place will observe Decoration Day. Several prominent speakers are expected.

Quite a scramble for our public school is promised, and the coming election will be hotly contested. Two trustees are to be elected.

A tollgate has again been erected on the Mt. Olivet and Germantown Turnpike. The road has been thrown open for travel the past two years.

But little of Robertson's tobacco crop has been sold. This makes the very small in these parts, but J. J. Landrum & Co. have begun buying, and an improvement in business is anxiously expected.

Mr. Olivet has two handsome young dentists, Dr. Pearce, late of Mayville, and Dr. Sprake, late of Cynthiana. They are both growing very popular and we only regret that business will not be sufficient to keep them both here.

The outlook for a crop of wheat in this county was never better at this time of year. It is encouraging to know that the fruit crop was not entirely destroyed as were the prospects of a pretty fair sprinkling of all kinds excepting peaches.

Dr. Dan R. Kimbrough and Leslie T. Disher make Sunday afternoon visits to "beautify" Sallis. Here the young men are sterling Democrats and in perfect agreement with the present Administration, having an animosity with everything pertaining to the name of Grover.

W. R. Carpenter of this place left last Thursday morning after announcing his intention of making Kansas his destination. He packed his trunk, took two horses and buggy, and left for the place of which he is a partner, and with a good double barrel shotgun for protection.

His way to the State of Kansas was by way of Augusta. Soon after his departure the telegraph was used to request the officials at that place to arrest anyone coming in of lunacy. Upon his arrival there the Marshal did not consider him sufficiently dangerous to warrant his arrest, and he refused to do so. Marshal Meadows followed after with a warrant, but likewise failed to make an arrest and he was permitted to go to Kansas or whither his inclination led him. Billy is not crazy only so far as drinking Mt. Olivet "moonshine" would make him so.

Mostly Mayville whiskey which no doubt is considered excellent at home, but the difference in climate and the shaking up it receives in transit causes such a wonderful change that a charge of lunacy is to be sustained against anyone who drinks it.

The expression "Politics is hell" is a beautiful, somewhat identity, and yet nothing so aptly expresses the condition of things political in Robertson just now. Two weeks ago the election of primary was held, and the ballots had scarcely been counted, or what is more likely true, the ballots had not reached the hands of the spoils of war, until the defeated aspirants were contriving some excuse by which they might "kick out of the traces" and appear before the people in November. The secret ballot is certainly not the thing for a Democratic primary. Contrary to expectations, it is far from what the framers of the new Constitution promised as it should be.

Almost every defeated candidate argues fraud and duplicity upon every other candidate, and the secret ballot, like dead men tell no tales, is the best evidence that it does not, and it is the same old story of tricks, trades and treachery that invariably win, and the one that can most successfully handle the "boys" most certainly knock the pernicious.

Up to this time but two of the defeated have openly announced their purpose to appeal to the people, and strange to say are the last persons one would expect to do by the track in such a race, both being the most orthodox Democratic-rebel brigadiers in the late unpleasantness. Colonel W. A. Morris, who has made the race for office in nearly every election since the organization of the county, and almost as often defeated, has served notice of contest upon W. T. Kenton, the Democratic candidate by 35 votes for the County Judgeship, and the Executive Committee will hear proof on next Saturday. Fraud and bribery is charged against Kenton. The result, of course, cannot be conjectured. Few, however, expect a belief that Morris will succeed in ousting Kenton. Fate has been kind to Morris. In every instance he has been out-generated, and even then has as often come, like Moses of old, in sight of the promised land, but he has not been the last man to aspire as a politician, first, because he has no money to spend; second, he is too honest to spend it; and third, Kenton, like the younger Pitt, is a "ruth." He is the son of ex-Senator

"Spring chickens" are not always tender, but Ayer's Pills enable the stomach to digest the toughest meat. On account of General Assembly Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., May 15th, the L. and N. will sell round trip tickets at $10 may 14th, 15th and 16th, return limit June 3d, 1894.

BALLENGER the Jeweler has the largest line of clocks in Mayville, from the cheapest wooden to the finest onyx, and they are warranted good time-keepers. That's the kind to buy. Don't fail to see his stock.

On account of the Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress to be held at Mayville, Ky., Wednesday, May 9th, the L. and N. will run a special train, leaving Mayville at 9:15 p. m. on this date for Carlisle and intermediate points.
